Welcome to the Cayman Islands (Saturday to Saturday)

The crystal, clear, warm water of the Cayman Islands has made it one of the top scuba diving destinations in the world. Divers will explore the walls and ship wrecks of Grand Cayman, Little Cayman and Cayman Brac (weather permitting).

The Cayman Islands are a British Crown Colony which lies 480 miles south of Miami, nestled in the turquoise waters of the western Caribbean.

Getting There, Passport & Visa Documentation:

Most major airlines fly into Grand Cayman: American, British Air, Cayman Airways, Delta, US Airways and Spirit. There are many direct flights from the US and several connecting flights for the UK and Canada.

Visitors must have a current passport, adequate funds to support themselves, and a return airline ticket. US citizens require a passport that must be valid for 6 months from date of entry. It is the travelers' responsibility to ensure they have the proper visa to travel into each country on his or her itinerary as well as for re-entry and return to their country. Since regulations vary by country, contact your consulate or embassy of your country for the requirement.

Arrival/Boarding/Departure:

The Cayman Aggressor IV operates out of Grand Cayman, BWI (GCM). Guests arriving on Saturday from 11:30 am – 6 pm are greeted at the airport by a Cayman tour guide who will be wearing an Aggressor Fleet hat and shirt and will have guests name on a sign. Cayman taxi regulations do not allow the Cayman company to transfer guests to the yacht. Airport transfers are not included in the cost of your charter. At the end of the charter, the Captain will assist with organizing transportation to the airport or hotel if you are extending your stay. If you are already in Grand Cayman, please make your own way to the Cayman Aggressor IV anytime after 3:00 p.m. Passengers can arrive up until the last flight Saturday evening. The yacht will depart the dock early Sunday morning.

The Cayman Aggressor IV, docks at the George Town Tourist Dock, however, during the winter months, she occasionally docks off Ann Drive in North Sound Estates. In case you arrive at the airport and cannot locate a uniformed crewmember, please call the local contacts. Telephones are located throughout the airport. Don't worry if the Cayman Aggressor IV is not docked in town because of rough seas or weather; there is always somewhere calm you can board the yacht.

During the week, weather permitting, the Cayman Aggressor IV will dive the best of all three islands which includes the Russian Destroyer in Cayman Brac, Bloody Bay Wall in Little Cayman, and Stingray City, Northwall, Southwall, Kittiwake and Doc Polson wrecks in Grand Cayman. After a full week of diving, the Cayman Aggressor IV returns back to the downtown George Town Government dock Friday afternoon after lunch. Guests can walk around town until it's time for the sunset cocktail party Friday night at 6 pm. Check-out is Saturday morning at 8 am.

Taxes/Fee/Transfers:

There is a $45 per person port fee paid onboard. Airport transfers are not included in the charter price.
